

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our time at home. Family time is rare and precious. It is important and appreciated to not have this time interrupted by unsolicited and unwanted calls.